Toan,

Please confirm that has been addressed. If we do not have confirmation payment has been made in the correct amount, we will have no choice but to proceed with a lawsuit against you. You executed an agreement months ago that you would make timely payments on a weekly basis starting in April and have failed to do so. Additionally, we require that you execute the settlement agreement provided to you on October 16 and again on October 20. Failure to do so, and failure to make past due and future payments thereunder, will result in an action based upon your default from April of this year, in addition to all other legal remedies that our client may have against you.

Toan,

In light of your statement that you could pay $3,000 as of September 13 and $500 weekly thereafter, see attached Settlement Agreement. I will have the information for the blank for ACH payment upon your execution of the agreement. As you will note, the Settlement Agreement contemplates payment of $5,000 on or before October 23, 2023. The increase from $3,000 to $5,000 is the passage of approximately four additional weeks at $500/week for an additional $2,000.

Please provide back a signed and executed agreement and arrange for timely payment of the initial payment.

Thank you.

Mr. Nguyen,

Given the amount of time that has passed, my client is seeking the full amount that it would have received if weekly payments were made commencing on April 1, as originally agreed, which, as of today, is in the amount of $12,000, with weekly payments of $500 thereafter. Our client rejected your last offer to pay $3,000 in August as an initial payment, and then to make payments thereafter of $1,500 a month from October until all monies were paid, which you stated is all you can afford.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, I have been authorized to propose a revised payment scheduled with $10,000 to be paid on or before September 29 with monthly payments to be made thereafter in the amount of $1,500 until the full $30,000 has been paid. In the event of a default, the full amount of the balance will become due and payable, in addition to our client's ability to assert any additional claims it may have. Payment can either be made via certified check or via ACH. The address for payment and ACH payment instructions can be confirmed upon finalizing revised terms.

Please advise by the close of business Friday, September 15, 2023, whether this is agreeable.

Mr. Nguyen,

We have not heard from you in response to our below email from August 30. In light of the fact that an agreement has not been reached to modify payment terms previously agreed upon by you, and that no payments have been made by you under the executed Closing Agreement, a copy of which is attached, our client intends to proceed with legal action to, among other things, seek the full amount owed by you under the Closing Agreement, unless all unpaid amounts under the Closing Agreement are paid by you on or before September 29, 2023 .

Pursuant to Paragraph 2 of the Closing Agreement, you were required, and agreed, to make payments beginning on April 1, 2023 in the amount of $500 per week for a period of fifteen months until the sum of $30,000 was paid. Since that time, twenty-four weeks have passed, totaling $12,000 that came due and is currently unpaid under the Closing Agreement. Additional amounts continue to come due each week.

Our client reserves all rights and remedies under the law.
